

1. The first part of the document discusses the importance of maintaining accurate records of all transactions and activities. It emphasizes that proper record-keeping is essential for transparency and accountability, particularly in financial matters. The text outlines various methods for organizing and storing data, including digital databases and physical filing systems.

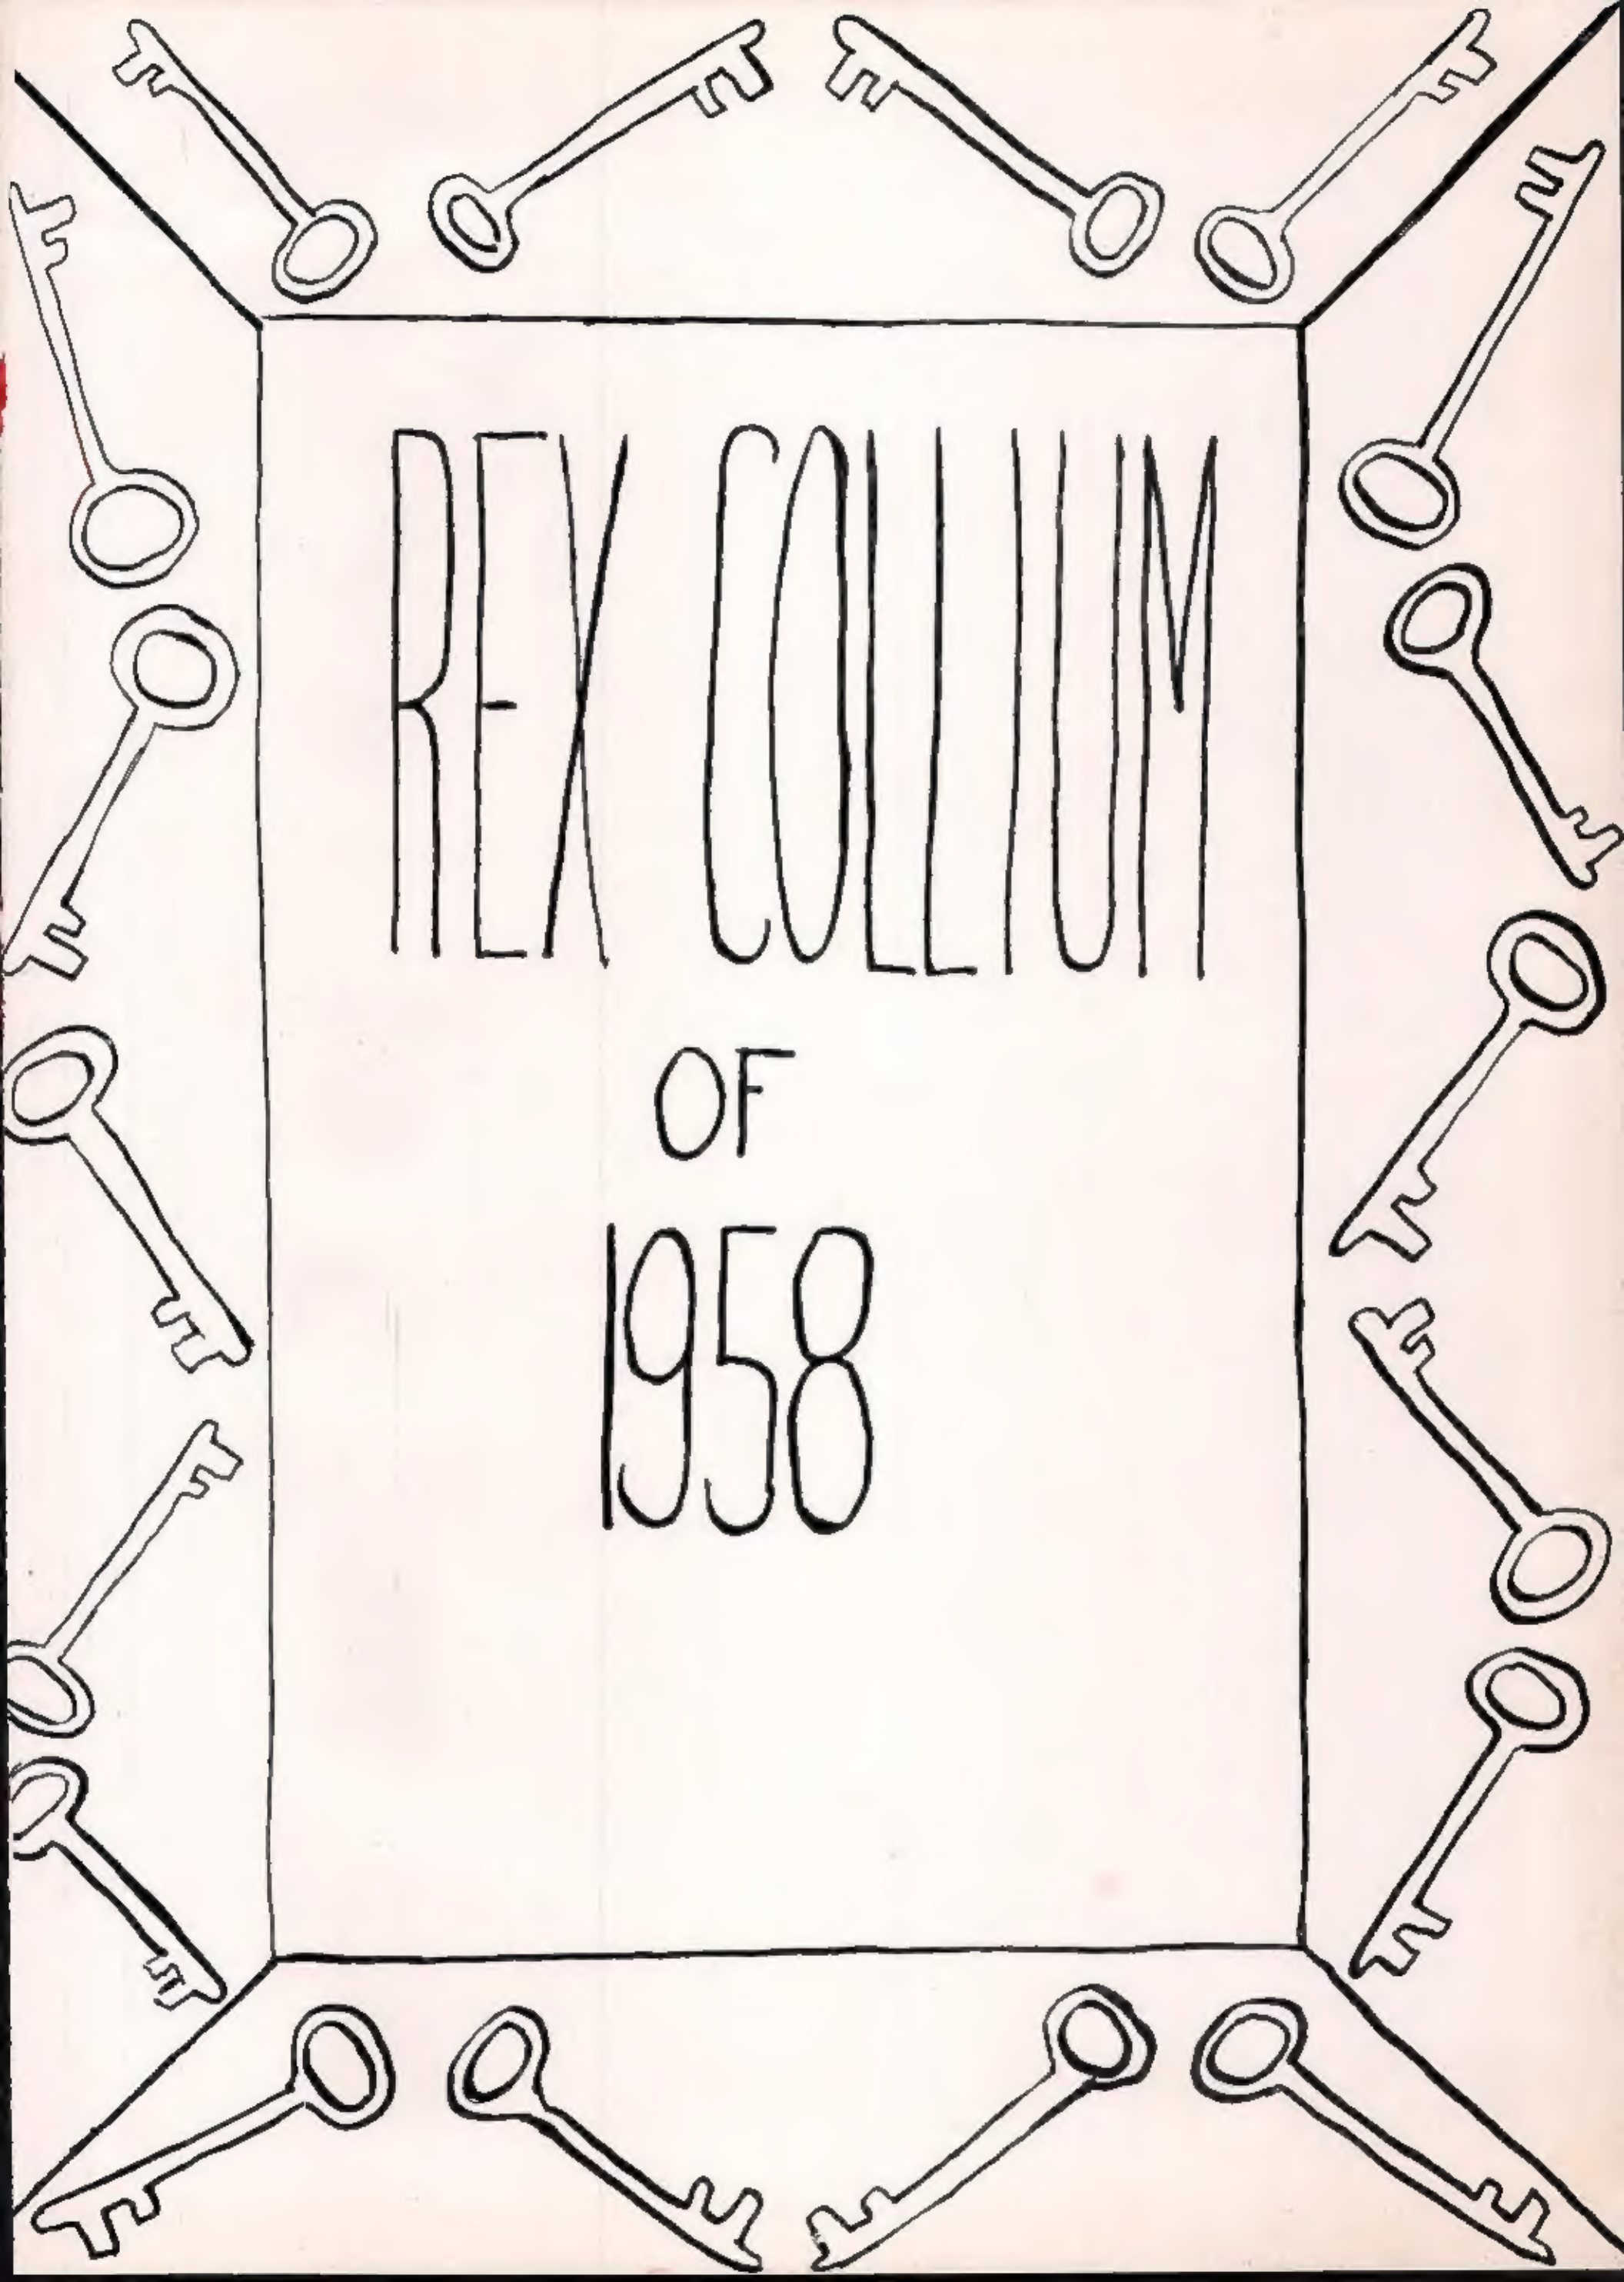

2. The second section focuses on the role of communication in project management. It highlights the need for clear, concise, and timely communication among all stakeholders. The document provides guidelines for effective communication, such as using appropriate channels and formats, and encourages regular updates and reporting.

3. The third part of the document addresses the challenges of resource allocation and management. It discusses the importance of understanding the capabilities and limitations of available resources and how to allocate them effectively to achieve project goals. The text offers strategies for identifying potential bottlenecks and developing contingency plans.

4. The final section discusses the importance of risk management in project planning and execution. It emphasizes the need to identify potential risks early on and develop strategies to mitigate them. The document provides a framework for assessing the likelihood and impact of various risks and offers guidance on how to prioritize and respond to them.

REX COLLUM

1958

Foreword . . .

This is the story of the class of '58 and how our lives were affected by our sojourn at J. B. J.

It has been said that education is the key to the kind of life you want to live and the kind of person you want to be. Our years at J. B. J. have been used primarily in trying to obtain that key. Our different interests and personalities have led us into many extracurricular activities; our education has been both broadened and enriched by all of these factors.

This, our Senior year, seems like the climax of everything; actually it is the Alpha and Omega—the end of school for some, but the beginning of a new life for all.

We, the class of 1958, dedicate this book to the past and to the future. It is our tribute to what we have accomplished thus far as a group and to what we, as individuals, will accomplish.

Mr. Simpson

Mrs. Leventry

Sara

To the Class of 1958:

For twelve years, under the careful supervision of your school, you have been laying the educational foundation for your life. Day after day the tools of learning and thinking and doing have been placed in your hands.

You have studied, learned, and developed certain skills and knowledges. You have mastered some of the principles of worthy living and worthy citizenship. You have climbed far to reach the eminence from which you now view your world. I congratulate you.

Your school, your parents, your friends do more than wish you well. Great are their expectations as you move forward to ever new and widening horizons.

R. Leslie Simpson

1st row, L to R: Mr. John Policicchio, Mr. Charles Szewczyk, Mrs. Gertrude Fetcho, Mrs. Margaret Gilbert, Mrs. Sara Leventry, Mr. John Schrock. 2nd row: Mr. Joseph Hoffman, Mr. James Kaufman, Mr. Arthur St. Clair, Mr. William Bills, Mr. Robert Stewart, Mr. Alton Walters, Mr. Fred Miller, Mr. James Friedline, Mr. Oscar Coleman, Mr. Vinton Griffith.

Seniors! What does a diploma mean? That you have attended school a certain number of years? That you have learned certain facts and mastered certain skills? That you have earned the required number of credits for graduation? That you have received training for a future career? Yes, it means all these things. But it means considerably more. And it is in this "more" that is found the basic purpose of your entire public school education.

Much has been said recently of the Russian school system. One thing is quite certain about their system: its underlying objective is the teaching of communism and the development of unswerving loyalty to it. So in America the primary goal of public education is the instilling of the principles of our way of life—the democratic way—and the development of faith in them. Your diploma implies that you have been given the opportunity to learn the ways of democracy. This is the big "more" in what your diploma means.

Whether or not your knowledge and skills help build a bigger and better earth satellite than Russia really isn't so important. But it is all important that you hold high the torch of liberty, that you preserve and defend democracy by living it, that the big "more" be treasured as your most valuable possession. Your diploma should mean this to you above all else.

FALL FESTIVAL QUEEN

Make way for the Queen! Selected as Queen from J. B. J. to attend the Somerset County Fall Festival this year was Glenda Kay Knupp.

Kay first attended the Kick-off Dinner held in the American Legion Home. At the coronation, Kay received a corsage of red mums.

Kay rode in the parade, held on the last day of the festival. Here she received a corsage of purple mums. After the parade the queens had doughnuts and coffee at the V. F. W. They attended a dance until dinner, which was served to all the Queens at the Pine Grill in Somerset.

The last activity was Coronation Ball, held at the Somerset Country Club in honor of the Queens. She wore a white floor length gown with a lace bodice and net ruffles from waist to the floor. Don Peterson was Kay's escort.

Kay's plans for the future include secretarial work and marriage.

Maple Maid of Honor

Sandra Raley was chosen to represent J. B. J. in the Maple Queen Contest. Mrs. Haupt was her faculty advisor.

The Maple Queen Contest was held at Cochran High School in Johnstown on February 5. All of the candidates met with the judges at an informal tea, where the girls were judged on the basis of their personality. In the evening, the girls presented their talent number and modeled. Sandra's talent number was the piano solo, "Intermezzo" by Brahms. She modeled a light blue evening gown which had a white lace and net over skirt.

When the results were given, she was the first runner-up, winning for herself the title "Maple Maid of Honor."

The Maple Festival was held in Meyersdale on March 21-23. Jim Brant was her escort. While at Meyersdale they attended numerous luncheons, the coronation ceremony, and the Queen's Ball.

Junior Class

The Junior Class has taken one more step on the stairway to that longed-for-moment—graduation.

The year has been filled with new experiences and interests for each member of the class. Whether it was knowledge acquired or new friendships gained the year has probably been one of the most memorable in the history of this group of Juniors.

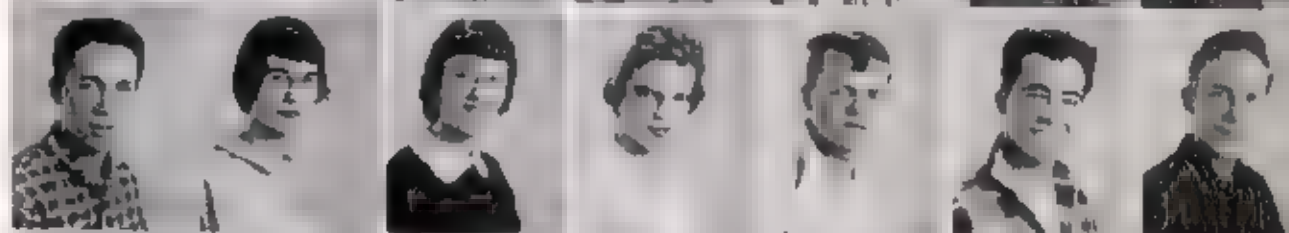

In both sports and studies the Juniors have achieved much. They elected these officers to lead the class: Darla Borelle, President, Edgar Robertson, Vice President; Anita Sheftic, Treasurer; and Madeline Palazzi, Secretary.

Their activities included a skating party held at Latrobe, concessions, a dance after a football game, and the sale of magazines, pens, and candy. To top off the school year, the Juniors sponsored the beautifully decorated Junior-Senior Prom with "Evening in Paris" as the theme.

1st row—B. Panek, M. Palazzi, T. Otanicher, C. Moore, M. Mitchell, S. Miller, G. McVicker.

11th row—J. Ogline, R. Orlandi, J. Ott, P. Overbeck, H. Patterson, J. Paugh, R. Peterson.

Mix thoroughly some first year algebra books, some slowly chattering typewriters, some laughter and tears, megaphones, horns, and balls, some busy, energetic boys and girls, and what do we have? Why, the Sophomore Class, of course.

Elected to guide the class activities were:

Eugene Chappell President
 Patty Evans Vice President
 Josephine Trella Secretary
 Ricki Orlandi Treasurer

During the fall the Sophomores held a Football Dance where Mr. Football and Miss Touchdown were chosen. They also sponsored a skating party held at the Latrobe Rink.

With only two more years to go, this class should be tops when the 1960 graduation day arrives.

1st row—J. Pluta, R. Pritts, J. Queen, L. Reinholtz, R. Rhoads, J. Ringler, K. Rose.

Freshman Class

Members of the Freshman Class have arrived at the midfield marker of their journey through high school.

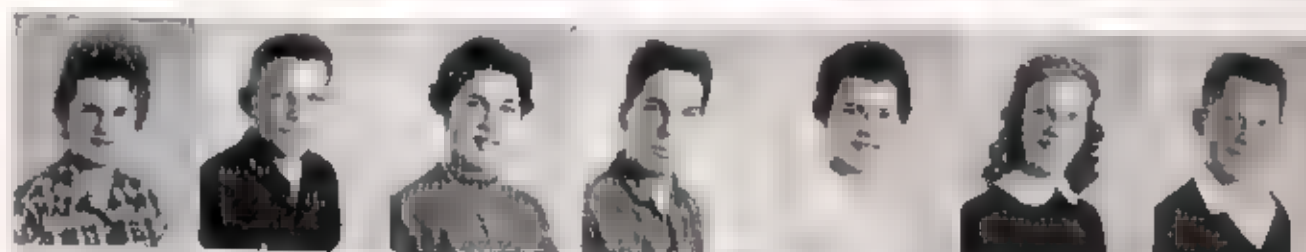

Chosen to lead the class this year were these officers: Jay Volk, president; Mike Passaro, vice president; Eugene Ferre, secretary; and Frank Szymanski, treasurer.

Class advisors were Mr. Chervanek, Mr. Fedrick, Mr. Hostetler and Mr. Moody.

With plenty of "bounce to the ounce," this class is off to a fine start with both books and balls.

1st row—G. Niemiec, R. Ogline, A. Pacifico, M. Passaro, D. Patrick, P. Patterson, J. Pelesky.

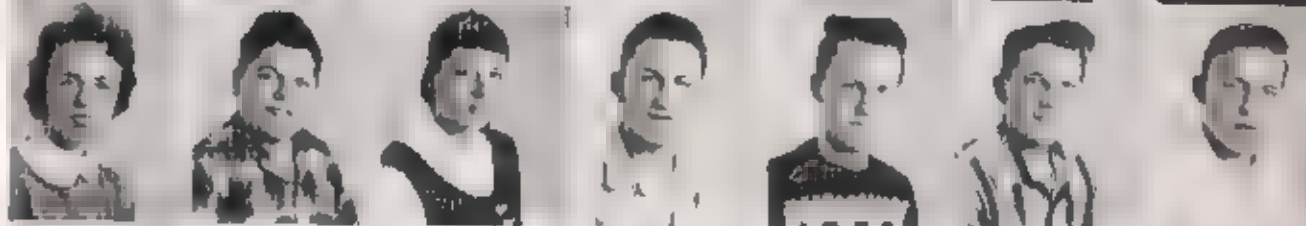

2nd row—W. Pettitt, R. Phillips, C. Pluta, J. Randall, C. Ream, D. Rhoads, L. Rhoads.

6th row—D. Thomas, W. Thomas, C. Tressler, D. Truscott, T. Tulenko, A. Tunstall, P. Turney.

7th row—J. Volk, S. Wasnick, H. West, C. Williams, J. Woy, A. Yost.

Eighth Grade

Although they cannot participate in the money-making activities of the school, the eighth graders have willingly taken part in the other activities which were available to them.

The boys showed their abilities on the sports field. They were cheered on by four eighth grade cheerleaders. Both boys and girls were members of the Junior Band and representatives to the Student Council.

They are advised by their home room teachers: Miss Davis, Mrs. Lundquest, Mr. Krupper, and Mr. O'Conner. Early in the school term class officers were elected: Ruth Mahl, President; Billy Croyle, Vice President; Donna Henry, Secretary; and Sylvia Beeman, Treasurer.

During the spring the eighth graders held a class party with dancing and refreshments.

National Honor Society

The National Honor Society is a scholastic organization which has a restricted membership of 10% of the Senior Class and 5% of the Junior Class. Mrs. Haupt was chosen as advisor. Through her help and guidance, the members broadcast devotions every Thursday and during the weeks prior to Christmas and Easter.

Five Seniors were inducted in the fall. Erma Randall, Rose Vesek, Ruth Zimmerman, Dan Hydock, and Jack McCreary. The induction and radio play were presented in a school assembly in observance of American Education week.

In the spring Junior members were inducted in an evening program which was attended by the parents and faculty. Following the induction a party was held for the members of the faculty and National Honor Society.

Serving as officers for the year were Sandra Raley, President, Linda Stemmler, Secretary, Barbara Reese, Treasurer, and Judy Mauzy, Reporter.

Eagle

This year the Eagle staff and their faculty advisor, Miss Le Compte, was a busy group. They have sponsored many activities; among them were the annual sale of singing Valentines, a skating party, the Heart Hop, and a paid movie which was shown in January.

The Editors are as follows:

Student Council

The Student Council, under the guidance and leadership of Mr. Kerekes, began the year by electing the following officers: Sandra Raley, President; Darla Borelle, Vice President; Glenda Kay Knupp, Secretary; Ron Wasyleczak, Treasurer; Pat Dallessandro, Reporter; and Bill Landis, Chaplain.

To finance their many various activities, the council sold ice cream during the noon lunch hour, candy at the basketball games, sweat shirts and school emblems.

The Student Council sponsored Student Day during American Education Week. On Student Day, all classes were taught by the students and each teacher was assigned to classes other than his own.

In October Sandra Raley, Pat Dallessandro, and Mr. Kerekes attended the 21st Annual Pennsylvania Association of Student Councils Convention at Kennett Square, Pa. The delegates had a very interesting and enjoyable time attending the group discussions, assemblies, banquet and formal dance. The delegates stayed in private homes, and the sponsors stayed in hotels in near-by Wilmington, Delaware.

In the spring several delegates attended the District Convention at

In addition to their many activities, the Council was also responsible for cleaning the trophy case, selecting next year's special assemblies and decorating the Christmas Tree and school windows.

Rhythm in Brass

The Band, under the capable direction of Mr. Kistler, has proved outstanding entertainment throughout the year.

From the beginning they showed their ability by their performance during the football games. Highstepping in front of the Band were ten majorettes, headed by Barbara Mincek. Going through snappy routines, marching in parades, and performing the band concert, were all parts of the Band's colorful contribution to the school.

Members were chosen from the Band to form an orchestra to play at intermissions for the Junior and Senior Class Plays. Then the Band began to prepare for All County and Central Western Band. A group of members was selected to attend.

The Band's biggest project was the annual concert which was presented in the spring. Proceeds from the concert and the parades were used to purchase jackets for the graduating senior band members.

The Junior Band, also under the direction of Mr. Kistler, had an opportunity to show their ability at the band concert.

This years officers are:

Chorus

The mixed chorus, under the direction of Mrs. Louise Thomas, gives all students an opportunity to participate in a musical activity. It is an elective course, open to Senior High students.

The 1957-58 chorus is composed of 177 members, 50 from the Senior class, 50 from the Junior class, and 77 from the Sophomore class.

During the year the group participated in a number of school activities, including a Christmas Assembly program, and the annual Spring Concert during National Music Week

The group acted as host for the Somerset County All-County Chorus Concert held in our school auditorium April 18 at 8.00 P. M. A number of the group were members of this organization.

The local group was represented at the Central-Western District Chorus Festival by John Lennox, Sandra Raley, and Robert Thomas.

The Chorus was greatly aided in its work this year by the acquisition of chorus risers which made it possible to hold rehearsals on the stage rather than in the main body of the auditorium.

Junior Historians

The motto of the Junior Historians, "Today's Students, Tomorrow's Citizens," accurately describes the goals of this club.

The club is under the direction of its advisor, Mr. Chervenak, and these officers:

|-------------------------------|------------------|
| President | Darla Borelle |
| Vice President | Ron Wasyleczak |
| Secretary | Georgiann Lazier |
| Treasurer | Vin Sheftic |
| Chaplain | Jack Bazyk |
| Corresponding Secretary | Marie Benedict |

The Junior Historians' work this year included publishing a book called "The Community Story," which gives the history of our Jenner Community.

Among their activities were: operating a concession stand at one of the football games, holding a football game, and sponsoring a Square Dance on March 14.

At the close of a very successful year, the club traveled to Harrisburg for its annual field trip.

For The Future . . .

F. F. A.

The Future Farmers of America is a club that only boys studying Vocational Agriculture may join. As its goals, the club emphasizes both education and recreation. This year all agriculture students belong to the F. F. A.

Leadership and co-operation are two important aims in the program of the club, and these two objectives are always part of the club's activities.

The educational activities for the past year include: raising and marketing ten acres of sweet corn, 20 acres of hay, and 15 acres of wheat; attending the leadership training school, the livestock exposition and the Farm Show; study and practice of Parliamentary Procedure; publishing news articles, and presenting radio programs.

The recreational activities included swimming parties, a corn and weiner roast, a steak fry, the annual Game Supper, a basketball team, and a fishing trip to Canada.

The program of activities for this club starts with the election of officers in May. This year's officers are: Richard Shaffer, President; Ted Moskey, Vice President; Lester Shaffer, Secretary; Elmer Beeman, Treasurer; William Persuhn, Reporter; Wilbur Awtey, Sentinel; and

F. H. A.

The Future Homemakers of America is a national organization composed of chartered state associations, one of which is J. B. J.

The girls who belong to the F. H. A. work toward these goals: to promote international good will, to work for good home and family life, and to foster the development of creative leadership in home and community life.

The advisor is Mrs. Haberlin, and the chapter mother is Mrs. Clair Eash.

The F. H. A. participated in the local Apple Dessert Contest. Kathy Showman was chosen by the faculty to represent J. B. J. in the County Contest, which was held at our high school this year. Also, this organization held a skating party, and sold both cookbooks, and Easter eggs.

Each year the girls hold a Mother-Daughter Banquet.

Several of the members traveled to the Farm Show held in Harrisburg.

This fine organization will continue its contribution to J. B. J. by its constructive and practical work.

JUNIOR AND SENIOR CLASS PLAYS

On the nights of April 5, 1958 and November 22, 1958 you could hear these words, "Curtain going up!" as the Class of '58 presented their Junior and Senior Class Plays.

As Juniors this class proudly presented "Shy Guy" under the direction of Mrs. Allen and Miss Davis. The play centered around the difficulties that Fred Hastings (Bob Thomas) encounters when he decides to earn some spending money by posing for Glamor Girl Cosmetics Ads. His friend Larry Madison (Bill Landis) also finds himself in trouble when he buys a dog on the installment plan for his girl friend Julie Tucker (Rose Vesek.) When an eccentric little lady of eighty (Barbara Eash) decides to play football, any attempt at trying to preserve the sanity of other casual observers becomes useless.

Other members of the cast were: Peggy Deist, Kay Knupp, Sandra Raley, Wilma Fetcho, Larry Shannon, Wendell Berkey, and Dave Lease.

As Seniors, the presentation of "Hillbilly Weddin," directed by Mrs. Haupt, was a howling success. Paw (Bill Landis) tries to marry off his six daughters, Celie (Barbara Mincek), Bonnie Mae (Wilma Fetcho), Juney Lou (Jane Walbush), Four, Five, and Six (Judy Mauzy, Carol Sadowsky, and Barbara Eash). Celie, the oldest daughter, is unable to catch a husband, due to the fact that she seldom takes a bath so Paw bathes her in the pig trough. When the Dude, Ronald Maxwell (Dan Hydock) and his Aunt Lucy (Kay Knupp) appear on the scene, Paw has his gun in hand searching for husbands for his girls. With the Upsleighters and the Cousins involved, the play turned out to be full of hilarious feuds and fun.

Others who had speaking parts were: Marie Benedict, Bob Thomas, Don Fetterolf, Ron Griffith, and Eugene Zuchelli.

1958 Class History

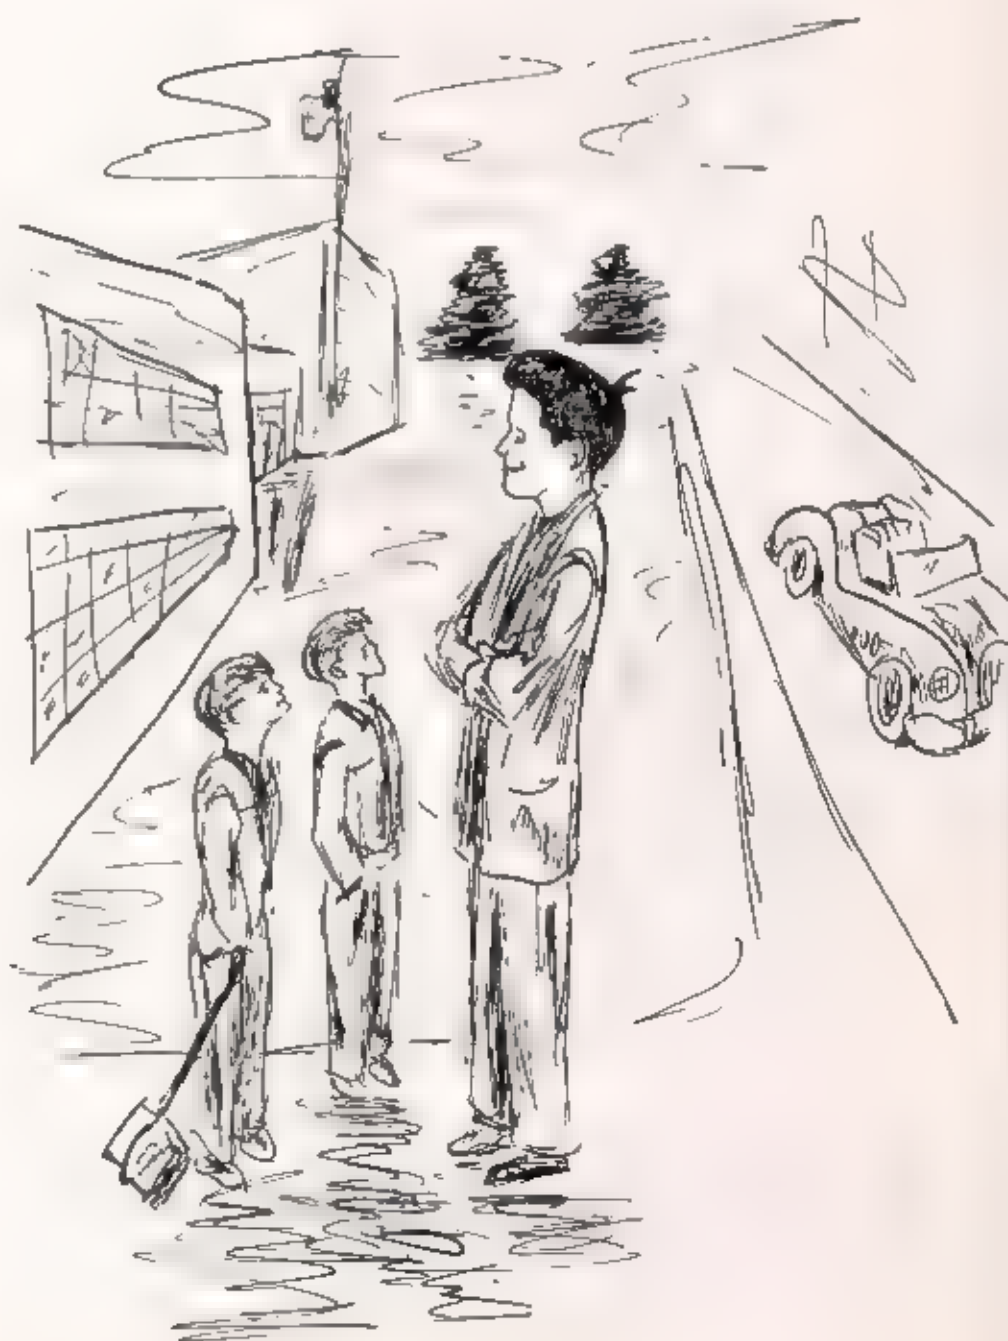

In the month of September, four years ago, we, the Senior Class of "58," entered J. B. J. as very green freshmen. To give the class the leadership it needed to help them complete a worth-while school career, Mary Sheeler, Wilma Fetcho, Glenda Kay Knupp, and Barbara Mincek were chosen as class officers. Several of the boys were already preparing for the time when they would take their places on the varsity football and basketball teams. Cheering on our boys were Cora St. Clair and Shirley Eckenrode. The class, under the direction of Mr. Federick, Mrs. Bucior, Mrs. Romanoff, and Mr. Hostetler, had their annual class party. As freshmen, we were looking forward to three more years at J. B. J.—each one being more successful than the other.

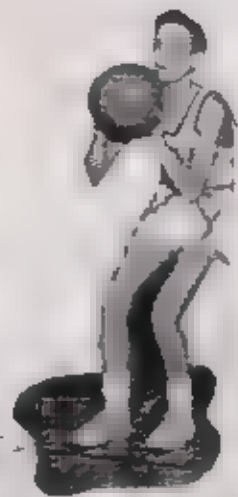

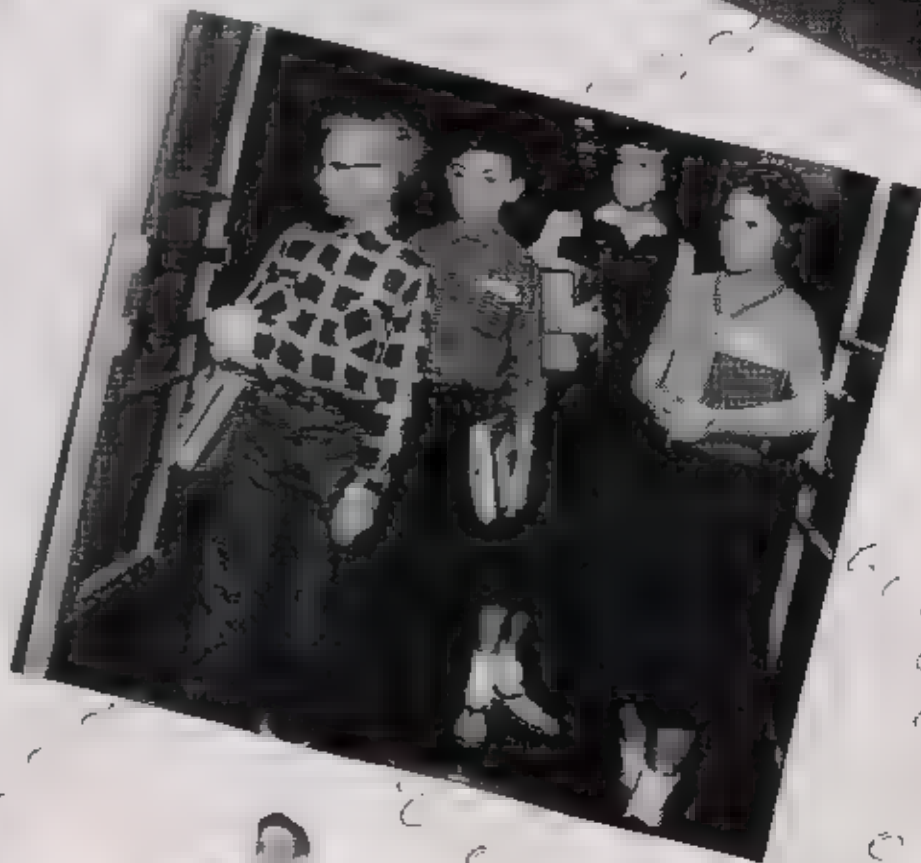

Returning to school as sophomores, we had the opportunity of selecting a course to follow through high school and our future years. This was also the first year we were given a chance to participate in money-making projects. Sandra Raley was elected to lead our class. She was ably assisted by Wendell Berkey, Vice President; Kay Knupp, Secretary; and Wilma Fetcho, Treasurer. Our advisors were: Mrs. Murphy, Mrs. Allen, Mr. Szewczyk, and Mr. Krupnik. Some of the boys participated in football, wrestling, and basketball. To the extra curricular events we contributed two varsity cheerleaders, six majorettes, and others who joined Chorus and Band. Our class also sponsored a "Football Dance," which was held on November 14. A king and queen were chosen to reign over the the 1955 football season. We also held a dance after the Rockwood basketball game and sponsored an assembly program, featuring some of the talent of the class. Before we knew it, our sophomore year was ended and we were looking forward to the next year.

Our junior year found us making plans for the busy days to follow. Bob Thomas was President, assisted by Larry Shannon, Vice President; Kay Knupp, Secretary; Barbara Mincek, Treasurer. Guided by these and by our advisors, Mr. Krupnik, Mr. Sheftic, Mrs. Bossart, and Mrs. Haupt, we felt that we would fulfill our dream of becoming a good, active class of the high school. We sponsored the concession stand at the Bedford football game on October 12, followed by a skating party on the 23rd day of the same month. We also sponsored a dance after one of the basketball games and a beautifully decorated Christmas Dance, which was a complete success. Another event was the sale of magazines, but this didn't go over as well as we hoped. Then came the Junior Play—a three-act comedy, entitled "Shy Guy." Bob Thomas, Bill Landis, Wilma Fetcho, and Peggy Deist had the lead roles. Mrs. Allen was the advisor and director. She was assisted by Miss Davis. The last activity for the year was the Jr.-Sr. Prom, which was held on May 3 for the departing seniors. The theme was "Pink Paradise," the decorations being pink and white, trimmed with glitter. This made our junior year complete.

At last we were seniors! The class elected Dan Hydock as President, with Bob Thomas, Vive President; Kay Knupp, Secretary; and Barbara Mincek, Treasurer. Mr. Krupnik, Mrs. Haupt, and Mr. Sheftic were advisors for the year. We decided to have a Halloween Masquerade Dance, with prizes given for the different costumes. This, our first big money-making project for the year, turned out to be very successful. We also had the concession stand at two of the football games. The second big event was the Senior Play, held on November 22, entitled "Hillbilly Weddin'." Bill Landis and Barbara Mincek had the leading roles. The play was under the direction of Mrs. Haupt. Two of our students, Sandra Raley and Bob Thomas, represented us at District Chorus, while Jim Brant represented us at District Band. Glenda Kay Knupp was chosen to represent our school in the 1957 Fall Festival Celebration at Somerset. Sandra Raley was then elected as J. B. J.'s Maple Queen Contestant and won the title of Maid of Honor. The contest was held in Cochran Junior High School. By this time, Class rings were beginning to gleam on the fingers of the seniors. The exchange of Senior pictures was also an important event in our last year at J. B. J. Then—name cards, graduation announcements, the senior banquet, the Prom, Class Day, and finally our "Graduation"! Yes, we were "Green Freshmen" when we entered J. B. J.; but at last our goal in high school was completed, and our diplomas were distributed. We, the Class of '58, can now look to the future with assurance and know that our dream of success has been fulfilled.

BASKETBALL

As described by our basketball coach, Mr. DeBlase, at this season's Athletic Banquet, "Our team this year was one of the best the school has had in recent years." The J. B. J. "FIVE" finished the season with a record of 14 wins and 8 losses. They were tied for second place in the Somerset County B League Contest.

The Basketball team started with a strong squad from which no one had graduated the previous year. Their spirit was high, as was the school spirit. The boys proved themselves a team to be proud of.

Seniors graduating this year will be Ronald Wasylczak, Bill Landis, and Harry Pacifico. There is also a team to look forward too, including two of last season's regulars and a substitute.

The behind-the-scenes workers included George Zablotney, senior manager; serving in the same capacity were Bernard Panek, William Fetcho and William Croyle. Wilma Fetcho was scorekeeper.

And we will not forget the Junior Varsity under Coach Danielson. Their wins were few, but their spirit was high with shining hopes for the future.

Wrestling

Our wrestling squad this year did a wonderful job as they revealed their courage and ambition to the eager spectators. Although often unpredictable, our boys displayed a poised, well-balanced team.

The 1957-58 wrestling team was coached by Louis Pike. The boys practiced often, improving their skills. They worked hard and practiced industriously from the first match at Somerset to the last one at Everett.

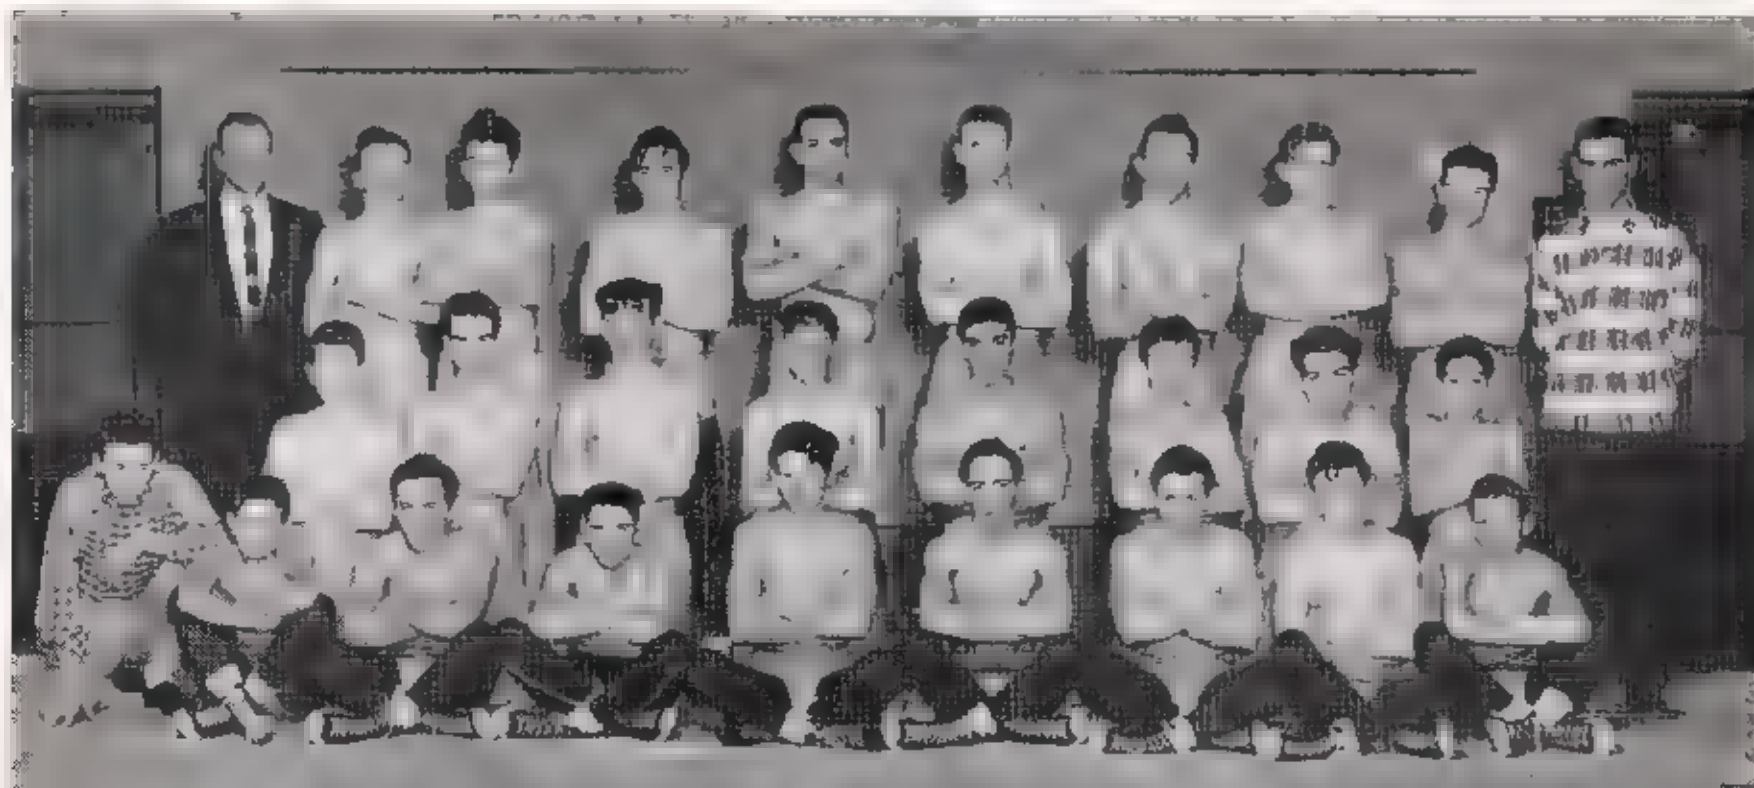

The underclassmen have gained valuable experience during the past season, experience that will benefit them greatly in their future years at J. B. J.

Dave Lease, Captain, and Lester Shaffer, Co-captain, helped to make this year a successful one. Ronald Whitfield and Edgar Robertson, managers, handled the equipment and attended to other important duties.

The District Five Tournament was held here at J. B. J. David Lease, Ted Moskey, and Jack Horner were selected to represent our school.

Graduation means the loss of four wrestlers: Dave Lease, Dan Hydock, Lester Shaffer, and Ted Moskey; but great are the expectations for the 1958-59 season as many of our grapplers return to lead us on to victory.

this year it is your turn.

Remember all the times we in the dead town of Ralph Remember all the cold-cold ex pop-corn and drank soda's and Enna and I always stuck to to the movies, dances, games, won't mention? I hope all the
be a lifetime memory to you able to forget them. Another and that is, that week-end to bad I didn't get to have summer, but things just did thought they would. Well I guess
